II. JURISDICTION OF SUBCOMMITTEES

European Affairs

This subcommittee deals with the continent of Europe, from Spain to the Soviet Union including Greece and Turkey. Problems relating to the United Kingdom, Greenland, Iceland, and the polar regions are embraced in this area.

Far Eastern Affairs

The geographic scope of interest of this subcommittee extends from China and Korea to Burma, inclusive, on the mainland of Asia, Hong Kong, Japan, the Philippines, Malaysia, Indonesia, Australia and New Zealand, Oceania, and the South Pacific islands. On trusteeship matters it has a related interest with the Subcommittee on Arms Control, International Organizations and Security Agreements.

Multinational Corporations

This subcommittee was created to undertake an in-depth study of the role of multinational corporations and their relationship to the foreign policy of the United States.

Arms Control, International Organizations and Security Agreements

This subcommittee deals with matters pertaining to the control and reduction of armaments, suspension of nuclear tests, nonproliferation, and related subjects such as the SALT talks. It also has within its purview the work of the United Nations and other international organizations, except for multilateral economic assistance programs which are considered by the Subcommittee on Foreign Assistance.

Oceans and International Environment

This subcommittee is concerned with the problems and activities involving the use, development, and exploitation of ocean space and the international environment, as well as international marine affairs generally.

Western Hemisphere Affairs

The geographic scope of interest of this subcommittee extends from the Arctic Ocean to Tierra del Fuego, and includes the Caribbean except for French and Dutch territories.

The problems which are of its concern are, among others, relations with the American nations, including Canada, boundary matters, the implementation of various treaties and conventions, economic relations, the security of the Western Hemisphere and the Organization of American States.

Near Eastern and South Asian Affairs

The area of concern to this subcommittee extends from Bhutan, Bangladesh, India, Afghanistan, Nepal, and Sri Lanka across North Africa to Morocco. It embraces also the Arab States and Israel.

This subcommittee deals with the problems of south Asia, the Middle East, and the relationships between Israel and the Arab States, problems of economic development, and the general security of the Middle East, the south Asian and Mediterranean areas.

Foreign Assistance

This subcommittee has jurisdiction over all foreign economic and military assistance programs of the United States, as well as foreign military sales programs, and including United States participation in multilateral assistance programs and international lending institutions.

African Affairs

This subcommittee has responsibility corresponding to the Bureau of African Affairs in the Department of State.

The subcommittee considers all matters and problems relating to both the dependent and the independent areas of Africa, with the exception of the countries bordering on the Mediterranean Sea from Egypt to Morocco, which are under the Near East and South Asian subcommittee.
